

Climate Change and Development – Adapting by Reducing Vulnerability

Demand-driven, targeted, flexible and rapid support for CC adaptation action

Experiences from the CC DARE Initiative in Sub-Saharan Africa: Wednesday 10 December 1-3 pm, Room CC TV III, EU Pavilion

The Government of Uganda is pleased to invite you to a side-event on sharing experiences from the CC DARE initiative in Sub-Saharan Africa. The side-event is organised in cooperation with the CC DARE Programme and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark

- Chair Steffen Smidt, Representative of the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs on Climate Change Issues, Ambassador
- Welcome John Wambede, Govt. of Uganda
- Introduction Ambassador Steffen Smidt
- CC DARE - Overview of the programme
Bubu Pateh Jallow, CC DARE project manager, UNEP
- Country experiences:
- Uganda John Wambede, Govt. of Uganda
- Sénégal N'diaye Cheikh Sylla, National CC Focal Point
- Tanzania Richard Muyungi, National CC Focal Point
- Benin Ibila Djibril, National CC Focal Point
- Panel discussion: Appropriate approaches for rapid response to CC vulnerability and adaptation needs
- Moderator Sylvie Lemmet, Director, DTIE UNEP (tbc)
- Panelists Representatives from Benin, Uganda, Senegal and Tanzania and from UNEP, UNDP, Danida, and CC DARE

Republic of Uganda

www.ccdare.org

Refreshments and sandwiches will be served